AFFIDAVIT OF
ADAM PAUL BRICKELL

I, ADAM PAUL BRICKELL of DLA Piper UK LLP, 3 Noble Street, London, EC2V 7EE, United Kingdom, state on oath:

1. I am an England and Wales qualified solicitor in the law firm DLA Piper UK LLP, and I act on behalf of the Plaintiff in the UK. I make this affidavit in relation to the service by me on the Defendant of a complaint filed on 8 August 2007 by the Plaintiff's lawyers in New York, Nixon Peabody LLP.
2. There is now shown to me marked Exhibit "APB 1" copies of the Plaintiff's complaint, the summons, the Individual Practices of Judge Jones and Judge Maas and the 3rd Amended Instructions for Filing an Electronic Case or Appeal (the "Documents"). I sent the Documents by way of service to the Defendant's registered office, which is at 58-60 Berners Street, London, W1T 3JS, UK, by first class post at 15.25 hours on Friday 10 August 2007.

3. There is now shown to me marked Exhibit "APB 2" an extract from Part 6 of the UK Civil Procedure Rules (the "CPR") which states at Rules 6.2 and 6.5 (6) that service in this manner is deemed proper service under the CPR. It is also the manner in which we would ordinarily serve a claim form, being the English equivalent of a complaint, in the UK.
4. Pursuant to CPR Rule 6.7(1), these copies of the Documents are deemed to be served the second day after posting, i.e. by Sunday, 12 August 2007.
5. In order to obtain proof that the Defendant had received the Documents, in addition to sending the Documents by first class post, I also sent them by Royal Mail Special Delivery (delivery guaranteed on the next working day, requiring a signature and also an acceptable method of service under the CPR) on Monday 13 August 2007. There is now shown to me marked Exhibit "APB 3" the Royal Mail Special Delivery electronic proof of delivery which proves that the Documents were delivered and signed for at the Defendant's registered office at 10.56 hours on Tuesday 14 August 2007. Pursuant to CPR Rule 6.7(1), these copies of the Documents are deemed to be served the second day after posting, i.e. by Wednesday, 15 August 2007.

I believe the contents of this affidavit to be true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
